RESOLUTION OF COMMENDATION IN HONOR OF
NICHOLAS PATRICK MASTRON, EAGLE SCOUT

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that members of this Board of County Commissioners of Shelby County, Tennessee, should salute young citizens who, through their natural talents and unwavering commitment, have distinguished themselves as emerging community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, This Resolution serves to honor and recognize Nicholas Patrick Mastron at scouting’s greatest moment, as he prepares to accept the Badge of Eagle Scout, during the Eagle Scout Court of Honor on February 22, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Nicholas is a devoted member and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader of Boy Scout Troop #241 in the Chickasaw Council of the Boy Scouts of America; and

WHEREAS, Nicholas, a Junior at White Station High School, serves as a member of the Student Council, National Junior Honor Society, Model United Nations, Philosophy Club, Debate Team, Swim Team, and Ballroom Dancing Club; and

WHEREAS, Nicholas, an active member of Second Presbyterian Church, has participated significantly in Bridge Builders of Memphis; and

WHEREAS, Nicholas’s leadership capabilities and caring commitment to making a difference in the lives of others, are a tremendous source of pride for his parents, Gary and Annette Mastron; and

WHEREAS, The success of Shelby County and the strength of our communities, in great measure, depend upon the dedication of young citizens such as Nicholas, who utilize their considerable talents and resources in service to citizens of our County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE, That this resolution shall hereby serve as an expression of commendation to Nicholas Patrick Mastron, Eagle Scout, scholar, volunteer, and young man of integrity.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Nicholas Patrick Mastron be and is hereby recognized and commended for exemplifying service to others and a dedication to community service.

*RESOLUTION COMMENDING DREW SCOTT
AS AN OUTSTANDING YOUNG CITIZEN OF SHELBY COUNTY*

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that the members of this Board of County Commissioners of Shelby County, Tennessee, should salute those young citizens who, through their natural talents and unwavering commitment, have distinguished themselves as emerging community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, This Resolution serves to honor and recognize DREW SCOTT, a first year Physics student at Rhodes College and graduate of Bartlett High School's Class of 2003 , who, on April 1, 2004, was recently awarded a local Jefferson Award, which honors volunteers who "do extraordinary things with no expectation of reward"; and

WHEREAS, DREW SCOTT faithfully volunteers his services each Tuesday night with Target House, which provides long-term housing for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital patients and families; and

WHEREAS, DREW SCOTT serves as Target House's only teacher for their 'English as a Second Language' program, writing his own lesson plans and teaching Spanish-speaking families conversational English, while translating documents, and assisting with grocery lists; and

WHEREAS, DREW SCOTT's leadership capabilities and caring commitment to others, made him the logical choice for a local Jefferson Award, which was sponsored by The Commercial Appeal, and began with eighty three nominations, with ten local winners chosen by a panel of judges; and

WHEREAS, The success of Shelby County and the strength of our communities, in great measure, depend upon the dedication of young citizens such as DREW SCOTT, who unselfishly utilize their considerable talents and resources in service to those in need.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That I, Joyce Avery, by authority vested as a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Shelby County, Tennessee, do hereby submit that DREW SCOTT, scholar, musician, and volunteer, be and is hereby recognized and commended for exemplifying compassion to others and a dedication to community service.
